JOHN R. BENNETT, S. T. MERRILL,
S. M. BENNETT, S. S. THORP,
W. H. TRIPP, Committee.

Would that Charles Francis Adams could come West, look at the country, and suspend the heated term.

There are seventy camp-meetings appointed in the East and West for the months of July and August.

The Fond du Lac Commonwealth says that "the Chicago Times, the Milwaukee Sentinel, and all other Democratic papers are for Ludington." It does look a good deal that way.

Had Milwaukee, or rather the friends of ex-Governor Ludington, succeeded in pocketing all the offices at the disposal of Governor Smith, there would have been no opposition to his renomination. They oppose his nomination on the lowest possible grounds; but this spirit will not rule the Convention.

Last year the heated term began on the 5th of July, and continued till the 18th.
During that time the thermometer ran up as high as 102° in the shade, and during the day did not fall below 97°. This year the extreme heat began on the 11th and still continues, the thermometer indicating from 90° to 95° above.

The contest in the Fifth Assembly District of Milwaukee over the delegates to attend the Republican State Convention was an exceedingly animated one, and was about as hot as the weather. The Smith men finally triumphed, the delegates pledged to his renomination, being elected over Ludington's by two majority. The bottom is fast falling out of that "solid" delegation for "Bluff Hill."

Edison has upwards of one hundred and fifty patents, more than any other man in the United States. Henry Bessemer, the English inventor, has as many as Edison, and is ranked as one of the most brilliant inventors of the age. His inventions are exceedingly practical. Bessemer steel, takes its name after him. By his invention, pig-iron can be converted into steel in a few minutes, and this process has reduced the price of steel from $200 per ton to $30, and during the past twenty years has increased the consumption of steel ten times.

"Brick" Pomeroy makes the announcement that he will, within a year, have in La Crosse a Tabernacle capable of seating 25,000 persons, "in which to discourse on common sense, attainable morality, and practical Christianity; and also for public meetings." "Brick" made this promise on the supposition that the United States will pay its bonded indebtedness in irredeemable paper, thereby flooding the country with cheap greenbacks, of which he will reap liberally. Build your Tabernacle, "Brick," with its 25,000 sittings, if you can, but it will never be reared by the labor of the working man which shall be paid for in a paper money that defrauds.

THE GOVERNORSHIP.

Special to the Gazette.

MADISON, July 15.—A telegram from Milwaukee reports the election of two more delegates for Governor Smith, at the caucus held in the 5th Assembly district.
This makes nine for Smith from Milwaukee thus far.

Letters and other advices from the West and Northwest indicate solid delegates favoring the re-election of the State officers.

MILWAUKEE, July 15.—The Milwaukee delegation is sure to be half for Smith.
The 5th Assembly caucus last night gave Governor Smith two more delegates.

MADISON, July 15.—The Second Assembly District of Columbia county elected Hon. H. W. Robber and Captain Ira H.
Ford, delegates to the State Convention and instructed them to vote for the re-nomination of Governor Smith.

The Second Congressional District will be unanimous for the renomination of the entire State ticket.

PRESIDENTIAL.

Gossip Relating to Politics and William E. Chandler.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—William E.
Chandler spent to-day in this city at the rooms of the Congressional Committee, of which he is Secretary. He leaves to-night for California. In conversation with your correspondent, he expressed himself as tired of politics, saying he had put in the hardest work of his life to elect Hayes, count him in, and oppose his policy afterwards, but he now thinks the President is improving his policy and making a good Republican President.

He thinks Tilden has the best chance for the Democratic nomination, but that Hancock would run better. The Republican nominee he says won't be Grant or Sherman. He is for Blaine, and thinks he has a chance and only a chance of being nominated. The lightning may strike Zach Caudier. The Presidential campaign will be fought by the Republicans to some extent, he says, upon the financial question, but the people will have nothing to say upon the question whether the country is to be ruled by Confederate brigadiers.

THE MARSHALS.

They Will not Resign—But Will Wriggle Through Till December.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Among the items of hot weather news sent from here last week was the report that Attorney General Devens had information that several United States Marshals would resign on account of the failure of appropriations for these offices. Mr. Devens says there is no truth in it. In all correspondence received from Marshals at the Department of Justice not one has intimated that he would resign. They all think they can wriggle through till December, when Congress will cure the evil with a deficiency bill. The service, however, will be greatly embarrassed, especially in the South, and illicit distilling will be carried on with renewed vigor.

CHURCH TELEPHONE.

Correspondence Milwaukee Sentinel.

BERLIN, Wis., July 14.—Yesterday morning a Bell telephone and microphone having been placed in the pulpit of the Union church, parties about the city had the pleasure of listening to the sermon of the pastor, Rev. R. M. Webster, by telephone.
It was intended that Poyssippi, Auroraville, Dartford and Green Lake should hear it, but the large amount of electricity in the atmosphere so affected the telephone that it was impossible to hear on these lines—from ten to thirteen miles long.
The singing of the choir and the organ music was, however, very plainly heard at Poyssippi, thirteen miles distant, and at the stations along the line. The day was hot and showery and the worst that could have been selected. Persons a mile from the church report hearing the sermon on the wire very plainly, sufficiently to keep the run of it and understand it. Nothing but the unfavorable weather prevented the distant towns from hearing. The wires will be left in the church and the novel experiment tried again on some more favorable day. This is the first time this has been attempted in the West, although it has been successfully tried in the East once or twice.

TERRIBLY KICKED.

RACINE, July 14.—This evening a man named Jacob Streaman, residing on Franklin street in the Sixth ward, was kicked in the face by a vicious horse, while engaged in harnessing the animal. Both the hind feet struck him full in the face, breaking the right side of the jaw, and smashing his face to a jelly. Most all of his teeth were knocked out and one side of his nose was knocked to pieces and the bridge fractured.

Other parts of the face were also damaged. The man is a terrible sight to behold, and an attending physician states that he cannot live on account of the intensely hot weather.

GOOD NEWS.

No New Cases of Fever—The Quarantine Raised.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 14.—The following was telegraphed to-day to every station along the lines of the four railroads leading from this city: "No new cases since the morning of the 10th inst. The fever is confined to the six sporadic cases.
Memphians are returning, and persons from adjacent towns are coming in. There were twice the usual number of passengers by the Brownsville accommodation train this morning."

S. H. COLLINS, M. D.,
Secretary Board of Health.

A. D. LANGSTAFF,
President Howard Association."

This afternoon the son of Judge Ray rallied, and to-night hopes are entertained of his recovery.

MEMPHIS, July 14.—Local stations along the Memphis and Little Rock railroad have notified the Memphis authorities that if no new cases develop by to-morrow quarantine would be raised between Memphis and Little Rock, Ark., which is twenty-seven miles this side of Little Rock. The weather continues very warm.

BEST'S NEPHEW.

A Belief that He has Committed Suicide by Drowning.

KANSAS CITY, July 14.—Philip Best, nephew of Philip Best, of the Milwaukee Brewing Company, and cashier of the branch located here some months since, disappeared mysteriously last night, inducing the belief that he has committed suicide. When last seen, he was on Broadway, near Third street, going toward the river. Diligent search to-day has failed to give a clue to his whereabouts, and persons best acquainted with him state they have little doubt he is at the bottom of the Missouri River. The only reason for his rash acts is the reported discrepancy in his accounts at Milwaukee.

OBITUARY.

MILWAUKEE, July 14.—Colonel William Fidler, a German well known among his countrymen here and in Chicago, died here to-day of consumption, aged 58. He had his life insured for $10,000.

KENOSHA, July 14.—D. C. E. G. Mygatt, during many years a practicing physician, died at his farm, called Maple Grove, situated about two miles north of Richmond, Ill., on Thursday of last week. When a mere child he became a member of the Presbyterian Church, and continued in fellowship with that religious society to the period of his death. During last winter a sudden attack of vertigo caused him to fall upon the stone floor in the Postoffice building in Milwaukee, and from the effects of that fall he did not recover. He was an educated, earnest man, and a Christian gentleman.

DEBUIQUE, Ia., July 14.—Mrs. Susan Mer-rett, aged 100 years, died to-day. She has been a resident of Galena, fifty years, and made the first Protestant prayer in the State of Iowa.

A KEROSENE FIRE.

BERLIN, July 14.—Sunday while little Ernest, a 13 year old son of Charles Slayton, was building a fire with the assistance of kerosene, the can exploded and burned the boy so badly that he died twelve hours after the accident. He ran out of doors when the explosion occurred, and a pang by putting the fire with cold water, which caused the skin to peel off his flesh.

TOO HOT.

MADISON, July 14.—The Hon. Peter Fogg who was sunstruck two or three days ago, is very low, and is not expected to recover.

A farmer, 77 years old, named J. Kershaw, of Verona, was sunstruck in the street here to-day, and is very low.

SECRETARY OF WAR.

St. Paul Minn., July 14.—The news read here from Washington that the position of Secretary of War has been offered to Ex-Governor Ramsey, is confirmed upon inquiry by those in a position to know the facts. It is also stated that he has forwarded his acceptance to the President.

A Fourth of July Snow Storm.

From the Portland (Me.) Advertiser.
A remarkable meteorological phenomenon was observed in several places in this city Friday afternoon. About 5 o'clock, flakes of falling snow were seen by many,
who could hardly credit their senses.
Sergeant Boyd, of the Signal Service, happened to be out at the time and caught several of the flakes on his sleeve.
He says such a thing might not occur again in 100 years. He explains it in this way: Artificial snow may be formed in a warm room, the air of which has become saturated with moisture from the breath or any cause, by suddenly admitting a current of cold dry air. Shortly before 5 o'clock a cloud was observed rising from the south.
At the same time another rose from the north-west. The current of wind which brought this along was cold, while the opposing current was warm and saturated with vapor. These two intermingled, and the effect was to form crystals of snow. The preceding heat and dryness of the day also helped to produce this result. The barometer was very low at the time, and the thermometer dropped 15 degrees in ten minutes. The minimum temperature Friday night was 57°. This sudden change was no less remarkable than the snow-flakes.

A Child Killed By a Bat.

From the Ellsworth (Kan.) Times.
Joseph Simmons, merchant tailor, of this place, was awakened on Monday morning by the crying of his two-months-old child.
He turned up the light and saw a large rat leap from the bed. The child's face had been cruelly bitten, and the poor baby died on Tuesday.

—Parties owning icebergs can now find a ready sale for them.
—Justice Prichard has fixed Jo Cook's imprisonment this time at ten days.
—The weather has been joked so much of late that it has got hot about it.
—Some of the druggists have gone to Clinton to-day to attend the meeting of pharmacists.
—The Girls' Society have a social at S. D. Conant's to-night and they invite everybody to come.
—On and after date C. W. Jackman will furnish hearse and carriages for funerals in this city at $3.00 each.
—The musicals at Miss Porter's rooms last night was well attended and the pupils showed a goodly degree of skill.
—Mrs. J. L. Wells sent to the Gazette office to-day some ripe tomatoes as a sample of what can be done by skillful gardening.
—The prudent man now walketh along the streets with his arms stretched out lest they stick to his body, melt, and run down into his shoes.
—Remember Dr. E. W. Beebe, oculist and oculist, will be at the Myers house tomorrow (Wednesday). Office hours from 12 to 3. See "ad" in another column.
—O. L. Lusk has returned from a visit to his parents in Fond du Lac, and will remain here until September, when he will continue his medical studies in Chicago.
—The Bower City Band gave an enjoyable open air concert last evening near J. B. Cassoday's residence. This is but one of a promised series, which will be given in various parts of the city.
—B. F. Crossett and E. L. Dimock have been added to the committee to arrange for the Temple of Honor excursion to Madison on the 23d instant. The excursion promises to be a large, joyous and successful one.
—Cannon's new block will be completed by the first of August. The hall will be opened by an entertainment to be given by the Janesville Guards, at which time the presentation of the silk flag will take place.
—Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lake, of Independence, Iowa, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon. Mr. Lake was called away again to-day on business, but his wife will remain some days visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. Veeder.
—We understand that Mr. Shurtleff is about to enlarge his dining room and ice cream saloon to accommodate the fast increasing patronage. His ice cream is in big demand, and it ought to be for there's none that can excel it.
—Henry A. Tice, who lately graduated with high honors at Lawrence University, has entered the law office of Cassoday & Carpenter. He has made a good record in the past and in his chosen profession will doubtless be no less of a success.
—The members of the Bower City Band desire to express their thanks to Messrs J. B. Cassoday and G. M. Hanchett for their thoughtfulness in providing chairs and other conveniences for their open air concert last night, and for the generous distribution of ice-cold lemonade among the musicians.
—As Mr. Loren Cheney, with his mother and sister, Mrs. A. W. Curtis, were leaving town Monday afternoon, on their way to Emerald Grove, a runaway horse and buggy ran into them, badly frightening Mr. Cheney's horses, and nearly upsetting his carriage. It was a very narrow escape for them.
—Patsy Griffin was on a bad drunk yesterday much to the sorrow of his many friends, who have watched him with pride during the many months of his sobriety. Yesterday he was quite disorderly, and on being put in jail last night smashed the furniture, and had to be locked up in the dark cell, where he could do no damage. It is to be hoped that he will again brace up.
—To-night the members of the Young Men's Association are to discuss the question of the immortality of the soul. Messrs. O'Brien and Niskern are to be pitted against Messrs. Phelps and Hyzer. There are many who would like to know for a certainty all about this immortality business, and the decision reached to-night will be watched for eagerly. One thing is sure the debates of the Association are interesting and should be more largely attended.
—N. B. Wing, who lives on Academy street, complains that his two pigs have got into the strange habit of stealing more than their allotted rations of milk by going directly to the cow and drawing their sustenance from her commissary department without the aid of any human milker. Those pigs must be a cross between a hog and a sucker. If anybody doubts the facts stated above, they will find corroborative proof by inquiring of John Richardson, who also vouches for the truth of the story.
—The Readons charged with the stabbing of young Maher on the Fourth, were brought before Justice Prichard again this morning but their examination was necessarily postponed owing to the condition of the wounded man, the date being fixed as August 5. Young Maher has been getting along quite comfortably for several days but last night became worse and to-day is in rather bad shape, and is not improbable that death may ensue, and possibly quite suddenly, though he and his friends still have hopes of his recovery.

—It don't help matters one bit to use cuss-words, to rip and tear, and lick your smallest boy, just because something has given way to the harvester or thresher. Save your temper and your money by going to G. M. Hanchett's hardware store, on Main street, and getting the needed supplies. He has a big stock of everything needed to fix the machines all right, and has belting, oil, rivets, nails, etc., harvesting tools, in fact everything in his line. By the way you needn't say anything about it unless you want to but he is selling oil stores clear down to cost. Think of it. It must be so, for he says so himself in another column.

THE LOCAL'S REVENGE.

We don't often grumble. It don't pay, and we have to do so many things that we don't get paid for, that we have rather neglected this. We have felt like it on several occasions of late, owing to the fact that our senior editor, like all great men, has a weakness, and the discovery of it has shattered our idol. Several times of late, while we have been necessarily absent from the office hunting up the facts of a dog-fight, or a child having its fingers burned while playing with matches, some of our friends have called and left upon our table little mementoes of their appreciation of some kindly notice which has appeared in our local columns, and such little tokens as a package of government bonds, or a set of diamonds, or a young bull dog, or a $30 gold piece, or a chunk of cheese, have strangely disappeared without our seeing them. We have suspected said senior of appropriating such perquisites which rightfully belong to the local department, and those suspicions have been strengthened into certainty. We are sure we never saw any of these bonds, or cheese, or diamonds, and if the other editor hasn't taken them it isn't his fault. Another weakness we have discovered in him is that whenever an irate man comes into the sanctum to get a retraction or do any clubbing he points him to the local chair. Now we are small, bald-headed, and our big brother don't live here, and we never feel well at such times. But yesterday afternoon we got our revenge. There was a step in the outer hall, and an excited man rushed in and between gasps for breath exclaimed: "I want to find the editor of this paper." It sounded like war and the senior editor buried his head in a pile of county exchanges. We took down our legs from their resting place on the table, hung up the card "This is our busy day," and prepared for action. Again that voice—"which is the editor of this paper?" The senior saw his chance, and pointing to the side of the room farthest from him, exclaimed "There he is—that little bald headed fellow by the table—that's him." We were just looking around for a club, or a tooth pick, or a mulligan bottle to defend ourselves with, when the voice of the stranger softened somewhat, and he hurriedly explained—"I started out with good intentions for your office, but I met a boarding house keeper, and she wanted some new potatoes so badly and teased me so hard that I sold her what I had, but I've brought along a lot of the best and sweetest green corn you ever tasted, and if you'll accept the little present, I'll go down to the wagon and bring you up some, and I'll bring you a whole lot of new potatoes in a few days." The cold sweat came no longer, and we thanked him as he hurried down stairs after the corn. New green corn at this time of the year! It was too much for the senior, and he slid under the table in despair at the thought that in trying to shirk an expected clubbing, he had missed such a glorious chance of dining off the early fruits of the season. We forgave him as we munched that corn, and the local felt that revenge was sweeter even than the corn.

MILITARY CHANGES.

An important meeting of the Janesville Veterans was held last evening. The resignation of Captain C. W. Baker was presented, and accepted with regret, and that worthy man placed upon the roll of honorary members. First Lieutenant Tinsley declined to accept the honor of being Captain, though falling to him in the line of promotion, although many would have been glad to have had him take the position. Second Lieutenant La Grange was then elected Captain, and Orderly Sergeant Andrews was made Second Lieutenant and the other officers promoted one step.
Captain Baker has done much to promote the welfare of the Company and has worked faithfully to build up its interest, but in Captain La Grange will be found one in all ways worthy to succeed him, and under his command the company will doubtless reach still greater success than that which has marked its career thus far. Another important change was made last evening, it being decided to drop the name of "Veterans," and to take on the new name of "Bower City Rifles." This change is a good one, and will be generally endorsed by all the friends of the company.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.
The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 83 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m., at 80 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m., at 80 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m., at 82 degrees above; at 1 o'clock p. m., at 83 degrees above. Clear.
One year ago to-day at 7 o'clock a. m., the thermometer stood at 82 degrees above, and at 2 o'clock p. m., at 91 degrees above.
The indications to-day are stationary or rising barometer, stationary temperature, and southerly winds and clear weather, possibly followed by cooler northerly winds.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Cincinnati's were crippled yesterday by the absence of Paley and Barnes, who were unable to play. Burke and Wagner, the substitutes of the Stars took their places but the nine were beaten by the Boston's by 8 to 4.
The Providence club were defeated by the Cleveland's yesterday by 7 to 5, thirteen innings being played.
John Remsen, of the disabled Uticas, has been engaged to take Goe's place in the Chicago nine, the latter being in poor health. Remsen played in that position in the Chicago team last year.

BADGER PATENTS.

The following patents were issued from the United States Patent Office to citizens of Wisconsin for the week ending July 8, 1879. Reported for the Gazette by S. A. Hudson, Solicitor of Patents, Lap-pin's Block, Janesville:

Horse corn planters—Addison C. Andre, Turtle.
Shaft and sleeves coupling—John F. Appleby, Beloit.
Horse collars—Elwin J. Blood, Muskegon.
High chair and carriage—Frank Chichester, Milwaukee.
Sand band for vehicle wheels—George C. Hill, Eau Claire.

JANESVILLE.

—Last Wednesday, the 9th, as Mr E. B. Smith was handling Palmer's old bull, "Senator," which he is keeping this summer, he slipped and partially fell when the bull attacked him furiously and but for the extremely soft and yielding condition of the yard would have killed him. As it was Mr. Smith was very badly bruised, the upper part of his body and head being severely pounded by the animal's head, his horns turning back in such a manner that he could not use them very effectively. Mr. Smith at first raised considerable blood and it was feared that he had received serious internal injuries, but he is now in a fair way to recover as soon as the cuts and bruises heal.
—Little Ralph, a six-year-old son of N. N. Palmer, was buried last Sunday. He had been sick from his birth, so much so that the lamp was never blown out and he was constantly watched for those long years, but his sufferings are ended and he is at rest. A bright eyed little girl, four weeks old, will help to fill the vacant place.
—Miss Julia E. Pierce and Mr. R. A. Achison, matrimony, July 4th. No cake for the jottor, but congratulations are just as hearty.
—Hadden's supervisors better "look a little out" for those pit falls at the top of the Lawton hill.
—Winter wheat and rye are now being cut. Both are looking much better than expected but large quantities of it have been injured by the rain.
—Considerable building this summer when it is such fearful hard times, you know. In the northern part of the town Belle Hungerford and J. B. Oliver each a house, and J. B. Kirkpatrick, Ole F. Vee and N. N. Palmer each a large barn. Palmer's being 40x22, 22 feet 22 feet. Including ten cords of stone-work, all the materials have been gathered and put up ready for filling in a month's time. Quick work, taking into account that it has rained nearly half of the time. It takes the place of the one burned, and is designed exclusively for his dairy herd of Jerseys.
—Constant Shaffer has moved to Monroe, having secured a mail route from that place to Warren, Illinois.

RURAL NOTES.

JOHNSTOWN, July 14.—It is rather too warm weather to write or do anything else, yet the farmers are very busy in procuring the crops. Barley, rye and winter wheat are now all ripe and quite a number of acres are already in the shock. Spring wheat might as well be called a failure around here and a great many acres will not be cut.
—Mr. H. B. Johnson has a fine piece of winter wheat as any one could wish for.
—Corn is growing very fast and as the farmers are crowded will not receive much more care.
—The hay crop is fine and generally secured in good condition. So far quite an acreage will be left until after the barley harvest is secured.
—Some cases of sickness in town owing to the extreme warm weather, but no dangerous ones.
—Churches are thinly attended of late. Preaching by Elder Jackson at the Congregational church and by Elder Potter at the Center. The latter is a strong advocate of temperance—even going so far as to recommend murder, and offering to help murder any one who sells liquor. He also thinks Matt Carpenter a disgrace to the United States. Probably Matt did not get him some salt place at Washington. And this not being enough he then pitches into our worthy townsman, Wm. A. Pickett, and the management of the Rock County poor house, which all rational people know is kept the best of any such like institution on the globe. That was his particular theme for a Fourth of July sermon in the house of God, and yet he has his followers. He says he is going to have a horse to ride in Heaven. Well, perhaps that's so, but if that's what his ticket reads, a great many good people will prefer the other route. Such talk from a minister of the Gospel, is what lowers Christianity in the estimation of its best followers.
—Henry Cheney and wife were visitors to this town last week, where they are always welcome. Mr. Cheney, a well known ticket reader, a great many good people will prefer the other route. Such talk from a minister of the Gospel, is what lowers Christianity in the estimation of its best followers.
—Candidates for office have already made their appearance. Hot weather don't stop them.
—Schools have closed for a short vacation.
—Quite a number of self binders have been sold in this town this season. Hat-vest help is very scarce and the agents of self binders have reaped the benefit.
—It T. Fember Esq. of the Fember house, is out superintending his harvest.
—Mr. Fred Myers is troubled with his old complaint and is not able to do any work.
—The cheese factory is running in full blast and to the satisfaction of all concerned except the price of sales.
—Send us a Manitoba wave.
